Penalty Fixed.

These rules specify the time in which a railroad shall turnish a shipper a car when such request is made, and for failure to do so within four days after such request, fix a penalty of one dollar per day. They also fix the minimum speed at which a car shall be moved by a railroad through this State at fifty miles per day, computing from 7 o clock the day following the receipt of the shipment, and provide for a penalty of one dollar per day for each day a car is delayed in transit. The rules allow a consigner forty-right hours fund in some cases seventy-two hours) in which to undollar per day for each day thereafter until the car is unloaded.

For Publication.

For Publication.

These are only some of the principal features of tile rules as prescribed by the commission. The rules have been published in full in the newspapers, and before the lifth of May they will have been published once a week for four consecutive weeks, fo comply with the provision of the law requiring that such notice shall be given the public before any general rule prescribed by the commission can become effective. In their entirety these rules cover many of the causes of complaint from which shippers and consignees now suffer, and it is believed that after they go into effect on the 15th of May, the number of complaints against railroad companies in this State will be greatly reduced, and that the service of the "allroads will be greatly improved. For the reason that these rules were being held in abeyance by the appeal of the railroads, the Corporation Commission has, to a great extent, had its hands fied thus far in handling complaints of this character against the railroad companies of the State. With these rules in operation, the commission will be in a better position than ever before to be of public benefit.

Of Great Value,

Of Great Value,

Of Great Value.

The appeal of the railroads to the Court of Appeals was a test as to the powers of the commission, and a test of whether the Corperation Commission was to be of any great value to the public. The Supreme Court, by declaring that the action of the commission was constitutional, decided this question beyond the shadow of a doubt. The Corporation commission has as yet been in existence but little more than a year, but in this short time it has already been the instrument of great public good in the Way of prescribing schedules and rates.

The Richmond Light Infantry Blues Battalion have issued invitations for the celebration of their eleventh anniversary which will take place at Westhampton Park on Tuesday next.

All the former members of the battalion, as well as members of the Blues Association, have been invited.

It is probable that the battalion will be attreed in their kaki uniforms for the first time, and the boys will doubtless make a fine appearance.

G. R. Clothing the Standard of High-Grade Ready-to-Wear.

The cut of G. R. clothing marks it as far different and superior to what's ordinarily seen. It's clothing that's distinctive-it's clothing that calls forth comment and admiration by its merit and grace-it's clothing that looks and is "quality clothing." A man takes an interest in such garments, for he wears them with absolute confidence in their being perfect in fit, correct in style, well made.

THE "SHELTERING ARMS."

Pathetic and Eloquent Appeal for This Noble Institution.

An officer of the "Sheltering Arms"

An officer of the "Sheltering Arms' Hospital makes the appended plea for aid to an institution, the worthiness of which has never been questioned:

The board of managers of the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital make a direct appeal to the friends of this institution for immediate assistance.

The house is full of patients, many applicants awaiting admission; the treasury is empty. What can be done but appeal to those who know the worthiness of this charity, and who would not stidly by and allow this work to come to an end?

The city's appropriation, always so helpful, especially at this time of the year, has been withdrawn for the last two years, making an immense difference in the amount needed to treat the city's poor, who are successfully cared for in this institution. Every attention is given entirely free. All classes and conditions are treated without any cost whatsoever to the patient.

Will not the good people of Richmond and the State (for many come from all parts) help raise the burden now resting upon a hard working board of managers, who dislike to her, yet are forced to do

BOSTON BAKERS RETURNING TO WORK

About One-Third of Those Who Struck Have Gone Back to Work.

(By Associated Press.)

BOSTON, MASS., May 3.—in consequence of the action of a large number of the smaller bakeries in the new working schedule, from three to four hundred bakers of the one thousand who struck in this city yesterday returned to their places to-day. About one hundred of the smaller concerns now have signed the new schedule, and the bakers' unions expect that a majority of the others in this class will consent to the demanda of the men. The contest then will be with the Master Bakers' Association, including the operators of three or four of the largest bakeries in the Boston district.

PITTSBURG HELPS FEED HUNGRY CHICAGO FOLKS

(By Associated Press.)

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, May 3.—Thirty-five thousand loaves of bread were received in Chicago to-day from Pittsburg to relieve the famine threatened by the strike of bakers. Milwaukee and St. Louis bakeries were appealed to for a portion of the city's requirements, but refused to respond, fearing that a sympathetic strike in their own establishments might follow.

A Pleasant Way Out

And an almost immediate comfort and relief is to quit coffee absolutely. Have as many or more cups of Postum Coffee, but be very sure to know-insist upon knowing that it has been boiled, actual boiling, not less than 15 minutes. Many cooks try to prepare Postum by 5 or 6 minutes boiling, but that will not do. Of course there's no harm in drinking a weak, insipid cup of underboiled Postum, but where's the use, when it can be had rich, deep brown, with a decided crisp coffee snap, hot and delicious. Don't let them serve it to you half made. After a day or two you will find (probably to your surprise) that the old sick troubles are better.
